

Agreement between The Institute of Physics and the Norwegian Physical Society

To enhance scientific relations and improve communications between physicists in Norway and in the UK and Ireland, the Institute of Physics (IoP) and the Norwegian Physical Society agree to extend the benefits of membership of their societies as follows:

Members of the Norwegian Physical Society normally resident in Country may:

- a) attend IoP conferences at IoP member rates;
- b) have access to the IoP's London headquarters during normal office hours, including access to the Members' Centre and facilities available within them;
- c) subscribe to the IoP's monthly physics magazine Physics World at a substantially reduced fee (the annual fee in 2004 is 45 Euro);
- d) purchase books published by Institute of Physics Publishing at reduced rates (20% discount in 2004);

Members of the Institute of Physics normally resident in the UK or Ireland may attend Norwegian Physical Society meetings at Norwegian Physical Society member rates.

This agreement shall come into immediate effect on signature by both the President of the Institute of Physics and the President of Norwegian Physical Society and shall remain in force until either the Institute of Physics or the Norwegian Physical Society gives 12 months written notice of termination or of a wish to renegotiate the agreement.
